Limericks for the Unwoke

Description

Limericks for the Unwoke – a cheeky little volume guaranteed to upset the wokerati, snowflakes and anyone of a sensitive disposition. Whether you're offending friends or just giggling alone in the loo, this book is your perfect partner in rhyme crime.

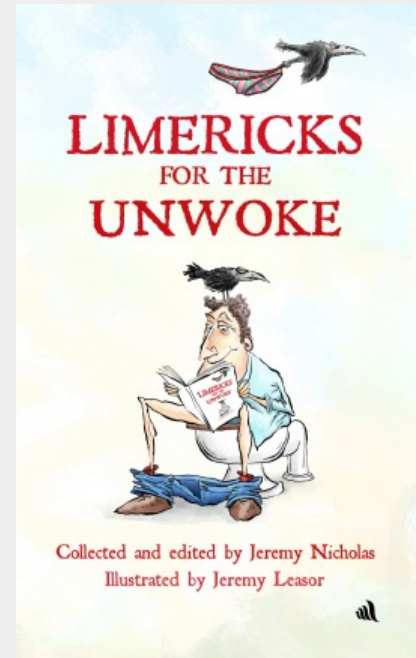

*There once was a cop from Crewe Junction
Who had sexually ceased to function.
For the rest of his life
He deceived his poor wife
With the dexterous use of his truncheon.*

In just five ingeniously-rhymed lines a limerick can tell a complete story - with a beginning, middle and end – and brighten the dullest of days. The best of them are rude or lewd or politically incorrect. Or all three.

*There was a young fellow named Hyde
Who fell down a toilet and died.
His unfortunate brother
Then fell down another
And now they're interred side by side.*

Limericks for the Unwoke – filthy rhymes for naughty times .
